3. Zwickau: Troops formerly based here, who departed in December, have returned in greater strength. [redacted] Zwickau in late March 1947 had more Soviet troops than at any other time since the occupation began. Although no armor has been observed, personnel often wear tank insignia on black and on black and red patches. Some of these troops are undergoing industrial training. Approximately sixty men are working at the Holzverarbeitungsfabrik Rohme in the Zwickau suburb of Wilkau-Hasslau, and others are employed by the Auto-Union-Werke and the Möbelfabrikation Bauer Zwickau.
